SUMMARY

I'm an application developer with nearly a decade of experience designing and building web and desktop software. My curiosity for how things work goes back to my pre-teens, scripting in-game events in the Warcraft III World Editor. I move fast and adapt quickly — which has let me work across .NET (MVC, Web API, Blazor, WinUI3, MAUI), modern JavaScript (React, Angular, Vue), relational and document databases, and Microsoft Azure. Lately I build with Python and Flask, weaving AI/LLM tooling into my workflow to ship faster.
